

Iteris is growing, join our team of experts in traffic signal operations and safety! Iteris' Tampa office has several open positions, including:

- Signal Timing Engineer - performs advanced tasks to analyze traffic systems, design operational solutions, and implement plans to create improved traffic conditions.
- ATMS Supervisor - leads a team that performs a variety of technical activities aimed at maintaining and improving arterial traffic conditions using both hardware and software tools.
- Traffic Signal Technician - performs a variety of technical activities in support of traffic operations, signal timing, and data collection projects.

For more information and to apply, please see our Careers page at <https://www.iteris.com/careers>.